STUDIO CITY BRANCH LIBRARY

12511 Moorpark St, Studio City, CA 91604

"Meet your wild neighbors as introduced by California Wildlife Center, Los Angeles' premier wildlife rehabilitation facility. This conversation will focus on wildlife rehabilitation, coexistence, and the impacts that humans and animals in Southern California have on each other in urban environments. We'll discuss common concerns surrounding a variety of wild animals found in the LA area and how to find mutually beneficial solutions."
